

DANA Members Vote in New Board Members

The board of the Delaware Alliance for Nonprofit Advancement (DANA) is pleased to announce the addition of four new board members. DANA's nonprofit members voted to approve Craig Crouch (Kent-Sussex Industries; Kent County), Mark Dunkle, J.D. (Parkowski, Guerke & Swayze; Kent County), John Kiely (PricewaterhouseCoopers; Philadelphia, PA), and Claudia Peña Porretti, J.D., CFRE (La Esperanza, Inc.; Sussex County) during the Annual Membership Meeting on June 24. All four will begin their three-year terms on July 1.

Craig Crouch

Craig is CEO of Kent-Sussex Industries (KSI), a nonprofit vocational rehabilitation organization in Milford, DE. Craig has been with KSI for many years, advancing with progressive responsibilities, and has held the CEO position for 10 years.

Craig is also currently a member of the Governor's Committee on the Employment of People with Disabilities, and was appointed by the Governor to serve on the Delaware Workforce Investment Board. He is former President of the Chamber of Commerce for Greater Milford, former Treasurer of Delaware Association of Rehabilitation Facilities, and former President of the Mispillion Rotary Club.

Craig received his B.A. at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg, NC.

Mark Dunkle, J.D.

Mark Dunkle joined Parkowski, Guerke & Swayze in 1996 as a Director, concentrating his practice in the areas of Commercial Real Estate, Residential Real Estate, Land Use and Zoning, Business Litigation, Government Regulations, Corporate and Commercial Law, and Eminent Domain.

Mark is Chair of the Delaware Chapter of the American College of Mortgage Attorneys. By nomination of the Governor and confirmation by the Delaware Senate, he serves on the State Public Integrity Commission. By appointment of the Delaware Supreme Court, Mark also serves as a member of the Supreme Court Rules Committee. He is the past Chair of the Governor's Magistrate Screening Committee, past President of the Kent County Bar Association, past Secretary of the Terry-Carey Inn of Court, past President of the Capital City Rotary Club, and a past editor of In Re, the Journal of the Delaware State Bar Association. Mark has served on the Delaware Board of Bar Examiners and is a member of the Real Estate Section of the Delaware State Bar Association.

Mark graduated with distinction from the University of Virginia, received his J.D. from Emory University School of Law, and is admitted to practice in Georgia, Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

John Kiely

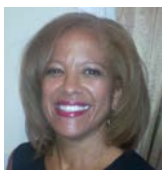

John Kiely is a Partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers in Audit and Business Advisory Services. He joined PwC in 1980 and became a partner in 1991. John has extensive experience serving publicly owned, multinational manufacturing clients and is currently the audit partner serving E.I. Du Pont De Nemours and West Pharmaceutical.

John is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and served as a Former Executive Committee Member of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is a former Board and Executive Committee Member of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and a former United Way Allocations Committee Member.

He has a B.S. degree in Accounting, having graduated Summa Cum Laude from St. Francis College of Pennsylvania.

Claudia Peña Porretti, J.D., CFRE

Claudia Peña Porretti is the Executive Director of La Esperanza, Inc. in Georgetown, Delaware. Prior to this role, she was the Director of Development for People's Place in Milford, Delaware, and the Executive Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of Indiana.

Claudia is a member of CFRE International, the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Brandywine Chapter, and the Delaware Hispanic Commission. She was also a former Cabinet Committee Member for the United Way of Delaware and was named one of Delaware Today magazine's Top Women in Business in 2013.

Originally from Connecticut, Claudia holds a J.D. from Indiana University's Robert H. McKinney School of Law, and a B.S. in Business Administration from Indiana Institute of Technology.
